

Peter Borszék

Graphic Designer

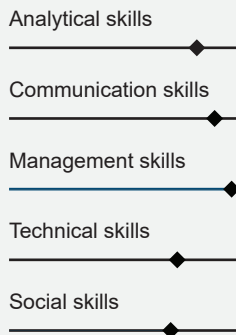

I studied economics, but already during my studies I was closer to creativity and design. I gradually went professionally from managing the marketing activities of one district in Košice to a full-fledged marketing service for clients in Belgium and France. After several years of this intensive cooperation, in recent years I have devoted myself more to building my own projects. Currently, I am again fulfilled by working for clients and developing their activities.

Atelier 100, Janík, Slovakia
meetUS@ateliers.to 00421905316575

Portfolio: www.ateliers.to

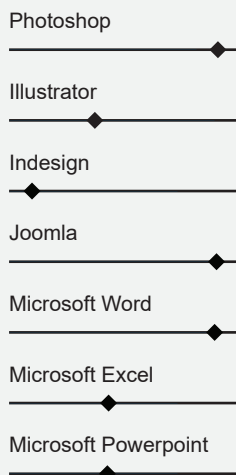

Personal skills

Languages

Expertise

Education

Technical University of Košice
Faculty of Economics
Graduated: 2005

Interests

Photography
Travel
Nature
Camping
Running
Arts
Festival movies

Experiences

Freelancer 2002 to 2008

Translations and interpreting; web design and graphics

In English, especially of an economic and business nature; web solutions for clients

City district of Košice - Nad jazerom 2008 to 2011

Web, graphics, marketing, photography

Complete visual outputs for the activities of the city district.

E-mail Brokers Belgium 2011 to 2019

Senior graphic designer

Designing and regular complete redesigning of websites, e-mail campaigns, processing of marketing and analytical materials into a visual form for the purposes of marketing and growth of the company's position (E-mail Brokers was among the 10 fastest growing companies in Belgium). Written communication in English/French. Regular online meetings with team members in English.

Freelancer, brand developer 2018 to 2024

Graphic designer, photography, marketing

Web and graphic solutions for clients on the domestic and foreign markets, development of own projects, photography.